Express Interest In A.T.A. Request For $2000 Minimum

At the regular meeting of the school committee of the County of Vulcan, held Tuesday of this week committee members expressed considerable interest in the recently publicized Alberta Teachers' Association statement that a $2,000 yearly minimum salary will be asked for all teachers in Alberta.

The board passed a motion authorizing committee chairman J. M. McKay to attend a special meeting in Edmonton of the Alberta School Trustees Association, if such a meeting is called early in March. The board also instructed the secretary to get in touch with other school boards in this part of the province with the object of forming a zone or division of the School Trustees Association.

A motion was passed authorizing the closing of county schools on Feb. 15, which will be observed as a day of mourning for our late sovereign, King George VI. A further motion was passed expressing sympathy and regret at the passing of the King and pledging loyalty to Queen Elizabeth II.

Scout Association Hears Reports

The regular meeting of the Scout Association Group Committee was held in the I.O.O.F. hall last week with Norman Scotney presiding.

John Hunter, district commissioner of the movement, announced that a telegram had been received from Dominion headquarters expected of Scouts during the period of mourning for the late King George VI. It was asked that all leaders wear a black mourning band on the uniform for a period of six months and that members of the organization take part in any local public service of memorial.

Reports of the various branches showed that a Cub and Brownie party was held Jan. 18, with the Brownies playing hostess to the Cubs. Eight Brownies received service stars and two new members joined the movement. The Boy Scouts have accepted an invitation to enter a team in the Lethbridge Scout chuck wagon races, Feb. 22-23.

Mossleigh H. School Rink Wins Provincial Curling

(Calgary Albertan)

Trailing 7-0 at the end of four ends, the Mossleigh Curling Rink skipped by Larry Androssoff came roaring back to defeat Robert Sandboe and his La Grace curlers 10-7 to capture the Alberta High School curling championship at the Glenace Club Monday afternoon.

The Mossleigh rink stunned the opposition by making some superb shots, in the final playoff for the Alberta title.

It was a case of being able to 'deliver in the clutch' for the Mossleigh team, as all through the Southern Alberta Playoffs and again on Monday the team was trailing in the early stages but managed to pull through.

The rink will now travel to Moncton, New Brunswick to compete in the Dominion High School Curling Finals.

As on Saturday, the whole town of Mossleigh turned out to cheer the young curlers on, and Androssoff and his mates certainly didn't let them down.

It was the final game of the day in which victory for the La Grace team would have tied all three teams and another playoff would have been scheduled.

But it wasn't to be. Mossleigh turned on the pressure in the fifth end and kept cutting the margin until they moved in front with three points in the ninth end.

They added an insurance marker in the tenth to take the title.

Stores Closed Friday

All Vulcan business places will be closed on Friday, Feb. 15, which has been proclaimed as a national day of mourning in honor of our late sovereign, King George VI. Memorial service at the Vulcan Armouries at 3:00 p.m.

In the early morning round, Victoria Composite High School of Edmonton came close to handing the Mossleigh rink their first defeat in the playoffs.

The Edmonton team led over most of the route, and threw quite a scare into Androssoff's quartet. But Androssoff came through with two important rocks in the tenth for the victory.

The team from the capital city had little trouble in defeating Robert Sandboe's rink from La Grace in the Peace River block.

They trailed 1-0 after the first end, and after the second end had the score deadlocked. Olsen's rink moved into a 2-1 lead at the end of the third game and never looked back and finished with a 11-2 verdict.

For the coach of the team, Edward Lindberg, principal of the Mossleigh High School, it was a great victory in his first attempt in the High School playoffs.

His two cousins, Robert Sandboe and Chester Sandboe had the misfortune of curling on the winless La Grace team.

Water System Still Expanding

Town in Good Financial Position, Report Shows

About 25 persons were in attendance at the annual meeting of the ratepayers of the Town of Vulcan, held in the I.O.O.F. hall basement Monday evening. A. G. Scott was chairman of the meeting and Mrs. E. M. Farr secretary. The financial statement for the year 1951 was read by Auditor G. A. Sales and showed the town to be in generally good financial condition.

Reports

The report on the water and sewer system was given by Councillor J. M. Jamison and showed an operating surplus for the year of $2,681. However, it has been necessary to spend $9,923 during the year on a new well, pumping equipment, trenching, etc., and this capital expenditure was provided out of the general revenue of the town. It was brought out that the water-sewer system was originally planned to handle 150-200 connections but there are now 275 connections and 15 more to be hooked up in the spring. The unexpected expansion of the system, in such a short space of time, required capital outlay in order that satisfactory service could be maintained. Four wells are now available, of which three are pumping into the system at the present time. Installation of meters had resulted in consumers closely checking leaks and wastage and consumption of water is down 10 to 15 thousand gallons daily from the amount used previous to meters being installed.

The public works report, given by Councillor R. J. Willard, recognized the fact that a major grading job on town streets is needed before drainage can be greatly improved. Lack of funds and the wet year experienced had made it impossible to do all necessary work on the streets. Donation of time by E. G. McPherson and of fuel and machinery by the gas dealers and implement dealers had made it possible to have further dragging done last year after public works funds were exhausted. It was hoped to expand the program of street work and sidewalk construction this year.

The matter of keeping sidewalks clear of snow was discussed. It was brought out that pedestrians find it necessary to use the streets because of sidewalks being blocked with snow, and this practice is conducive to accidents. A request was made that a snow-plow be hired to keep sidewalks clear of snow in the winter time.

The police and fire report, presented by Councillor Stan Scales, showed there had been no serious fires during the year. A protest was made against the riding of bicycles on sidewalks and action to curb this practice was promised.

Councillor Norman Scotney gave the report of the parks, cemetery and relief committee, which showed there was only one relief case in the town. The cemetery will have to be extended this year and

Correction

Mistaking an 8 for a 3, the Advocate, in a front page story last week stated that Richard F. Clements of Division 3 of the County of Vulcan was one of the three councillors whose terms had expired. This, of course, was wrong, and the official notice of nomination meeting to be held this Saturday correctly stated that the divisions for which nominations for councillor would be received were Nos. 1, 6 and 8.

Mr. Clements' term of office has NOT expired. Councillors whose term of office expires this year are Allan McLean (Div. 1), Jack Dietz (Div. 6) and J. M. McKay (Div. 8).

We regret any inconvenience the error may have occasioned Mr. Clements or Mr. McKay and trust that the matter is now straightened out.

it was proposed to purchase two more acres of land for this purpose.

The skating rink report, given by Councillor M. D. McIntyre, showed that greater interest in skating this year was reflected in increased receipts from this source. Cancellation of hockey games to the prolonged spell of mild weather brought a reduction in receipts from this source. Some improvements have been made at the rink and further improvements to the electric wiring etc., will be made next year. Rink receipts amounted to about one-third of expenditures and it was doubtful if receipts would ever offset expenses.

A recommendation was made to the council that a town pound be established so that cows or other animals running loose and doing damage to gardens, etc., could be impounded.

The report of Mayor W. D. Allen, based on the latest report of the municipal inspector, showed that the town's affairs were in good order, with all loans, etc., being paid as they fell due. Office records were very well kept.

Grain Club To Meet Feb. 21

The Vulcan Junior Grain Club Achievement day and organization meeting for 1952 will be held in the Legion rotunda on Thursday, Feb. 21 at 8 p.m.

Any farm boy or girl between the ages of 12 and 21 years inclusive is eligible to join and is invited to attend this meeting.

Parents and friends are also cordially invited to be present.

Financial Condition Good

United Church Reports Given at Annual Meeting

The Annual meeting of the Vulcan United Church was held Feb. 11th following a tasty dinner served by the ladies of the congregation.

Rev. J. C. Clarke presided at the meeting, which was attended by about 75 members and adherents. Reports were presented to the gathering by all the various church groups and a very satisfactory condition was revealed. The financial statement showed all accounts paid and a satisfactory balance carried forward.

The Building committee advised that the contractor for moving the church building has promised to commence moving the building very shortly.

The following members were elected to the session for 1952: Mrs. C. Jordan, Mrs. I. E. Plourd and Messrs. C. J. Graham, James Shortt, Chas. Northcott and M. R. Morrison. The Board of Stewards for 1952 elected were: W. Munro, Geo. Fulton, D. Montgomery, J. M. Jamison, W. A. Shields, C. R. Andrews, A. W. Jones and A. A. Giles.

Hansell To Speak Here Feb. 22

Mr. E. G. Hansell, M.P. and advisor to the Canadian Delegation to the United Nations Assembly in Paris, has been engaged by the Vulcan Christian Men's Club to speak in the Vulcan Armouries on Friday night, February 22, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Hansell left for Europe after Christmas and served with the Canadian Delegation in Paris. Late in January he was in Germany where he visited son Harry's grave and when he started his return trip last week he arrived in London just a few hours before the King's death. He will remain in London until after the funeral this week-end and then return by air to Calgary.

After he returns his first address will be in the Vulcan Armouries upon the subject "Christ and World Affairs."

Six Years of Growth

Church of Christ Reports Progress in Past Year

The annual meeting of the Vulcan Church of Christ was held on Friday evening, Jan. 31. Reports indicated the sixth consecutive year of substantial growth for the church, five of these years being under the leadership of J. Chaplain, minister of the church.

The attendance to the morning services of the church rose to an all time recorded high of 110, surpassing by 4 the record set in 1933. The average attendances of the last six years were, beginning with 1946, 51, 48, 60, 82, 99, and 110. It was reported that evening services during the last six months of the year were higher than any time during the last number of years, ranging upwards to 75. Attendances up to 100 were recorded in the five youth groups during the period of a week on several occasions during the year. Membership in the ladies organizations totaled more than 50 while some 20 men met during the late part of the year.

Total receipts for the church and church organizations were $5,191.26, a growth of 12 per cent over the previous year. More than $1,250 was given to missions during the year. These offerings went directly to the missionaries with whom the church has personal contact, some who were connected with the Vulcan church during their youth such as Edna Hunt of India, Howell Rees of India, Bill Rees of South Africa, and others known here such as Clifford Edwards, E. G. Cays, Neville Clayton, and Howard Rash of Alberta, and the Alberta Bible College of Calgary.

The building fund of the church expended $1,300 on expansion and improvement of facilities. The major item of expenses was the installation of the new automatic oil fired furnace for the basement of the church and the study. The second unit for the auditorium is expected to be installed this year. It was also estimated that about $2,000 was sent to mission work by individuals which was not recorded on the books of the treasurers.

The church voted to pay the tuition of her young people that are now in Bible college and those who go in latter years. At present, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Smith and Elaine Love are in the Alberta Bible College in Calgary. At least one more is expected to go next year. Leslie Jones, who graduated from the college two years ago and is now minister of the Keel St. Church of Christ in Toronto, was another of the recent students from Vulcan.

Neilan Dodson of Eugene, Ore., became associated with Mr. Chaplain during the last four months of the year. They shared jointly the work of the Nanton and Vulcan churches, with Mrs. Dodson taking over a big portion of the youth work. Mrs. Chapman had charge of the kindergarten work during the fall months. The latter was also considered a successful venture, with upwards to 30 preschool children taking part in the Thursday morning classes.

Take a Holiday

Everybody ought to take a holiday once a year. Our body is like a machine, which must be cared for to run efficiently. When a much-used piece of equipment gets rusty we oil it to retrieve smooth performance. We replace worn parts with new ones. We treat our machine like a baby, moving it undercover as protection from the rain, and giving it every care and attention.

Yet when we come to our own health, many of us are prone to dismiss precautions with a shrug. "I'm as strong as an ox," we say, and so we don't take a rest. We may think there are reasons for postponing that holiday. We haven't got the money, or there's that painting to do. So we spend our time doing odd jobs around the house, take it a little more leisurely than usual perhaps, and then deem ourselves completely relaxed to take on regular duties for the next 50 or so weeks of the year.

Our body is a delicate instrument, just like machinery, and it needs care. It is much more complex than an ordinary tool, however, because it is capable of becoming mentally exhausted as well as physically.

The oil, the new parts—the healing salve—is best applied on a holiday which gives the body a complete change from daily routine. It doesn't have to be on an extensive or luxurious scale. Just to get away, to do something different, to ease the mind as well as muscles is all that is necessary.

Can't afford it? It's more enjoyable to spend money on a holiday than it is to pay doctor's bills.

The Same Old Question--- "Is Sweeping Essential?"

Now that the bonspiel is once again upon us it is fitting that an old skeleton should be dragged from the cupboard, fearlessly exposed to the light of new knowledge and then ruthlessly consigned to the garbage can where, all curlers will agree, it should have gone in the first place.

This skeleton has to do with sweeping. Ever since the first curler saw his unswept rock die four feet short of the house, the devotees of this game have been convinced that sweeping is essential. It is only the non-curling outlanders who would consistently dare to say otherwise.

There have been instances of curling novices timidly complaining about this harsh form of exercise, on the ground that it is of doubtful value. But this heresy is abandoned at an early stage in a curler's career. It wavers before the studied contempt of his teammates and collapses completely the first time he throws a short rock.

Nothing Wrong

For this misadventure leaves him with a fierce certainty that there was nothing wrong with his throw. He was right on the broom and his weight was perfect. Obviously then, there could be only one explanation: The two men charged with the responsibility of sweeping his rock had fallen down on the job. Their efforts may have let them both prostrate upon the ice writhing in an agony of wrenched oaks, broken tendons, and torn ligaments; but he is still convinced that if they had only done a decent job, his rock would have come to rest squarely on the button.

From this time forward, then, the curler has no patience with those who scoff about sweeping. He writes off their opinions as those of untutored buffoons and he pays no further attention to them. This is standard practice among all curlers and as far as lay criticism is concerned it is quite effective. But curlers have had more difficulty in dismissing the data accumulated by a man who set out deliberately and by scientific means to destroy their simple faith.

Some years ago this man — a professor at a western Canadian university — assembled a great array of mechanical gadgets intended to propel a rock down the ice with exactly the same weight each time. He then got out his tape measure and noted the distances achieved by the rocks when they were swept and when they were not swept. A-1 after what he claimed was an exhaustive series of tests he announced that the sweeping made not one particle of difference.

The shattering announcement gained momentary attention, even among some curling deviationists who cited it as a defence for their laggard efforts. But the great mass of loyal curlers sturdily closed their minds to the subversive doctrine and eventually the detractors of sweeping forgot about it. However, although the skeleton was thus put out of sight, it has lurked in the cupboard ever since as a constant threat available to some new image-breaker.

Public Benefactor

Now, happily, one of the true believers has unearthed a profound piece of evidence, based on tests every bit as scientific as the professor's, and completely demolishing his heretical conclusions. This public benefactor is Mr. H. E. Weyman, of Levis, Quebec. He has collaborated with Mr. W. A. Creelman of Sydney, Nova Scotia in the writing of a book, "Curling, Past and Present", and in a section dealing with sweeping Mr. Weyman presents the results of a highly scientific test made at St. Moritz, Switzerland, in 1921. It showed that sweeping not only made a difference but it made a difference ranging from 10 to 18 feet.

The complete tests are summarized for all to see on pages 237-9 of the book. They furnish the final crushing answer to the disbelievers; they enable the faithful to face the world with a clear eye and they permit at long last, the ejection of the skeleton. —Free Press.

Grain Varieties For Alberta

Available now from District Agriculturists or from the Extension Service, Alberta Department of Agriculture, Edmonton, is the annual publication "Varieties of Grain for Alberta."

This circular, summarizing the findings of the Alberta Varietal Zonation Committee, outlines the best varieties of wheat, oats, barley, flax, rye and field peas for this province, and their suitability for the various soil zones. While last year's recommendations have been largely retained, some varieties have been dropped and others introduced as a result of experimental and other evidence gathered by the committee.

"Varieties of Grain for Alberta" is a widely read circular. Those who have been in the habit of consulting previous issues will welcome the appearance of the 1952 edition. Those not familiar with the contents of this publication should ask their District Agriculturist for a copy.

Home Painting More Popular

About 75 per cent of all indoor painting in Canada is now being done by the householders themselves, says G. R. Ingleston of the paint and varnish division of Canadian Industries Limited.

"This is partly due to the high cost of living and because of the feeling of accomplishment a man gets by doing it himself," Mr. Ingleston said.

Comparing painting tastes across the country, he thought that people in Quebec, while excellent handymen, were not quite as color-conscious as those in Ontario. Westerners are using more and more wood for interior paneling which has created a demand for finishes which show up the natural grain. About half the paint used for interior decorating is white or based on white.

Improper mixing of paints and failure to clean walls thoroughly before painting, were the two most common mistakes made by the average householder when he undertakes to paint his own home, he said.

"The best way to mix paint is by placing the can on a proper paint shaker in the store where it can be mixed perfectly in three minutes. If mixing is done at home the thin paint should be poured off the top into a separate can, the heavy paint at the bottom stirred, then the thin paint gradually added while stirring. Finally it should be 'boxed' by pouring from one can to another six or seven times."

He recommended the use of a hard, high gloss enamel in kitchens and bathrooms to prevent steam from soaking into the paint

Myers-McLeod
Scarboro United Church, Calgary, was the scene of a pretty winter wedding at 7:30 p.m., Jan. 5 when Miss Olive Eileen McLeod of Lomond, became the bride of Richard Charles Myers, Vulcan.

The young couple were united in marriage by Rev. Parsons.

A background of baskets of pink and white gladiolas was the setting for the twilight service. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown of white nylon marquisette featured a full skirt with an overlaid jacket of chantilly lace. The embroidery floor length veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. Her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls with matching earrings and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

The bride chose her sister, Miss Jean McLeod, as bridesmaid, wearing a pale pink floor length gown with tight fitting bodice and bouffant skirt. Her shoulder length veil misted from a pink bandeau and she carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Little Norma Myers, niece of the groom, was flower girl, dressed in a dainty yellow chiffon frock and carried a nosegay of sweet peas in pastel shades.

Freddy Geschwendt attended the bridegroom while the ushers were Aubrey Root and Donald McLeod.

During the ceremony Mr. Don Hagen sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "I Love You Truly".

A wedding buffet lunch was held later where a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bell was the setting of the newlywed's table. The toast was proposed by Freddy Geschwendt, with the groom responding very fittingly.

For travelling, the bride changed to a winter white dress, topped by a grey coat and rust accessories.

The bride and groom left later for Great Falls and upon their return will make their home on the groom's farm east of Vulcan.

Champion

The Champion United Church will hold its regular Sunday service at 11 a.m. and Sunday school at 12:15 a.m. beginning Sunday, Feb. 24 until further notice.

The official opening of the Champion Association Public Library was held Saturday, Feb. 9 in the village office building. Visitors were welcomed by the chairman and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. T. P. Carlson and Mrs. F. Little.

Lunch was served in the board room where Mrs. Peter Dawson and Mrs. H. E. Smith shared honors at the tea and coffee urns. The long table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with a mirrored floral piece flanked by lighted tall white tapers in silver holders.

There was an exceedingly good attendance from 2 to 6 p.m. and a goodly number of new library members were signed up, adding much to the success of the opening.

W. A.

The W.A. of the United church held their January meeting at the home of Mrs. W. Christensen. Twenty-four members were present and the meeting was presided over by Mrs. L. Latiff.

It was decided to hold the annual St. Patrick concert in the Community Hall, a definite date to be announced later.

Following the general business meeting, officers for 1952 were installed by Rev. P. Dawson.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Dekker and Mrs. E. Fraser.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. E. Siler Feb. 26. (Shrove Tuesday) when the members will enjoy a pancake supper following the general meeting.

Grain Drying Equipment

Of the available types of grain-drying equipment, M. E. Dodds, Department of Agriculture Experimental Station, Swift Current recommends a unit that consists of a centrifugal fan to supply the required pressure and volume of air, a pressure-type oil burner which lends itself to automatic control, and a dryer made up of a system of vertical flues that deliver dry heated air to the grain and remove from it the cool moist air.

Automatic burner control is important in view of the necessity of having to operate the drying process within a narrow temperature range. For maximum drying efficiency grain should, of course, be heated to as high a temperature as is safely possible. These safe temperature limits are relatively low. Grain used for seeding purposes will lose its germinating power if heated to a temperature above 110 degrees F., while grain intended for milling purposes will lose some of its milling quality if heated to a temperature above 140 degrees F.

Although Mr. Dodds recommends the flue-dryer, he also approves of the drying tower, or the batch-dryer. Here heated air is forced into a control chamber from which it passes through a column of grain on either side.

Grain drying is a slow process. It takes time to heat the grain to the temperature at which it will give up its internal moisture. The final operation in grain-drying is the cooling process, when cool air is forced through the grain to reduce the temperature for safe storage.

Detailed information on grain-drying may be obtained from the Experimental Station at Swift Current or the University of Saskatchewan.

GRANDMA HAD A SYSTEM

(The Edmonton Journal)

Once upon a time, we are told, raising children was a fairly straightforward business. Today "experts" pour out "scientific" advice from every quarter, and mothers who listen too closely to the chorus often find it pretty bewildering.

An American child specialist, perhaps to the surprise of some of his colleagues, doesn't think too much of this chorus of advice. He is Dr. Herman Little of the school of Medicine at the University of Buffalo. Quoth he:

Up to 1900, mothers were doing a pretty good job of raising their children. We knocked the stuffing out of them — and they began to feel one had to be a scientist to raise a child.

As a result, he believes many mothers have lost confidence in their handling of their children, regardless of how they do it. This loss of confidence Dr. Little considers very bad for both children and mothers.

SKIERS WILL COMPETE

AT BANFF

Canada again will have the honor of playing host to the best American skiers at the 1952 North American Ski Championships which will be held at Mount Norquay, Banff, March 8-9.

This will be the second time that Banff has been chosen as the site for the North American meet. In 1950, such top international skiers as Zeno Colo, of Italy and Egon Schöpf, of Austria, raced down the mile-and-a-half downhill course that has been praised by the world's greatest skiers.

Dropping 2,400 vertical feet with an average gradient of 35 degrees, this course is a rugged run for competitive skiers.

The jump, on which Art Tople of New York made a record jump for the hill of 224 feet in 1950, has been improved so that even longer jumps will be possible this year.

The North American is a four-way meet with downhill set for Saturday morning, cross-country Saturday afternoon, slalom Sunday morning, and jumping Sunday afternoon. The competition is for Senior Open and Class A only and F.I.S. regulations will be used. It is likely that Pepi Gabl, of Stowe, Vermont, will be the course setter.

Greatest test for the skiers stamina will come in the cross-country event, a gruelling course of 18 kilometers, or approximately 11¼ miles. F.I.S. rules require that one-third of this course must be on level ground, one-third uphill, and one-third downhill.

The people of Banff are busy with preparations for this meet. Jack Anderson is co-chairman along with Ernie von Kuschka, president of the Ski Runners of the Canadian Rockies. The race committee is headed by Garry Blackburn and Dave Spence, president of the Western Section of the Canadian Amateur Ski Association.

Have Your Farm Machinery Ready

It is not too soon to think of checking farm machinery and equipment after the long winter lay-away. There is sometimes delay in getting spare parts, and a machine that won't work is no help in the spring rush.

Only too often a worn part gives out or a casting breaks in the field. Generally these breakdowns could have been avoided by a winter overhaul. Bolts and set-screws used in adjustments can be the cause of much delay if they are found to be inoperative at a busy time.

While the machine may have been working well the last time it was used, it will work all the better for a thorough cleaning, checking and oiling during the off-season. It may save a breakdown at a busy time; it will certainly save wear and tear on the machine at any time.

ORIGIN OF A NAME

(St. Thomas Times-Journal)
What's in a name. A British geologist was kicked by his horse while crossing the Rockies in 1858 and his party named the scene of the mishap Kicking Horse Pass. The name sticks, one of the most famous in the world.

Shortly after the report that Russia had exploded an atomic bomb, a young lady of my neighborhood enrolled in Civil Defense and took a first-aid course. She rushed breathlessly into a recent meeting.

"This first-aid course is wonderful," she cried. "As I was crossing Main Street two cars crashed and a man was badly hurt. He had a compound leg fracture and an artery cut, I'm sure, the way he was bleeding."

"And you put your training to good use?" her instructor beamed. "I certainly did. The minute I felt giddy, and knew I was about to faint, I put my head down between my knees. In just a minute I felt fine."

An Eye to the Future

Long term planning helps you to raise more than the average for your area. This planning for the future should especially be applied to the five basic factors of farming. They are: Land, Livestock, Labour, Capital and Size of Farm or Farm Business. Every farm is different and has its individual problems. So it's up to you to make each factor work hard for you.

Many farmers have found it helpful to talk with their Commerce manager. He represents a bank that has for many years taken a keen interest in promoting better farming and in looking after Canadian farmers' banking needs. Why not pay him a visit?

She carried a bouquet of red roses. As matron-of-honor, the bride's sister, Mrs. A. Heather,

Shower Honors Lomond Bride

A miscellaneous bridal shower, honoring Mrs. Richard Myers, formerly Miss Eileen McLeod of Lomond, was held at the home of Mrs. Roy Fitzpatrick Tuesday afternoon, when the ladies of the district were joint hostesses. Some 20 neighbors and friends were gathered and enjoyed a game of bingo. The lady winning three bingos was awarded the grand prize, this going to Mrs. Ernie Bowie.

Mrs. H. Hanna and Mrs. Fitzpatrick brought in a large basket decorated as a Valentine, and filled with many lovely and useful gifts for the bride's new home. Mrs. Hanna, on behalf of those assembled made the presentation and expressed the best wishes of the community, for a long and happy married life, for the young couple. The guest of honor was assisted in opening the beautifully wrapped gifts by Mrs. Fred Geshwendt. Mrs. Myers very graciously thanked her friends for the good wishes and lovely gifts. A delicious lunch was served by the ladies.
